UCS Drive Under Way Rockwell Loses Again As JC Board Says No!

Public service chairman Dr. Byron Netzley pointed out to his committee the importance of their division, which is approximately one-third of the total Lemon Grove-Spring Valley quota of $6,700.

Public Hearing Set For Water Control Board

The San Diego Regional Water Quality Control Board will hold a public hearing Nov. 17 at 9:45 a.m. in room B-109 of the State Building, 1350 Front St., San Diego, to consider adoption of water quality control policy for the waters of the San Diego River system, excluding the tidal prism.

The Grossmont Junior College District board of trustees has reaffirmed its policy of not allowing George Lincoln Rockwell to appear on campus.

The decision came about at Monday night's regular meeting of the board after the college's history department protested the action of a college administrator concerning the appearance of the American Nazi Party leader.

Erving Metzger, vice president for instruction services at Grossmont, last week denied a request by history department instructors Abel Sikes and Jacqueline Hall to have Rockwell speak on campus to their respective classes.

es. Metzger was acting president of the college at the time since president Harold Hughes was out of town.

Metzger cited the board's decision last April to refuse Rockwell an appearance on the El Cajon campus. The board unanimously echoed that decision Monday night.

Teachers Sikes and Mrs. Hall cited, in their protest, the faculty handbook which permits teachers to invite speakers to their classrooms without consulting the board. They must, however, inform the administration of their action.

In other action, the board approved of a $2 million building plan for expansion of present facilities.

Additions to the college will constitute the second increment which involves new wings in the fine arts, science and technology, liberal arts and business and library sectors.

The next step will be the state's approval or disapproval of the architect's plans.

A fall semester enrollment figure was given to the board. It showed a total enrollment of 4,871 students, 3,461 attending during the day and 1,410 at night.

Teachers' Salaries Upped in Lemon Grove

The Lemon Grove School District agreed to raises for teachers amounting to $8,500 a year at the regular board meeting Monday night.

The funds will come from a supplemental appropriation the Legislature voted late in the session. The funds are offered low wealth districts. Lemon Grove receives $58,000.

Increases of $225 a year goes to all teachers in Class 1 and those in Class 2 with 15 units. $225 increases will go to all teachers in Class 4 above

Step 10. Maximum for Class 4 Step 11 was increased to $9,325 a year.

Of the supplemental income remaining, $22,000 is being used to hire new teachers and to provide classes for educationally handicapped youngsters. The rest of the money goes into the undistributed reserves fund.

'Surly Service' Charge Made Against Building Inspection

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A similar house in the county complaint of slow and surly took some ten weeks just to service against the County process the building permit. Building Inspection Department will have an early answer if the Board of Supervisors can give it following a complaint of R. D. Hamann of the El Cajon building firm of Sangster and Hamann.

Hamann said the firm built a house in El Cajon in nine weeks to occupancy but that treatment from all levels of the department with the exception of the department head himself.

"It is our opinion that the entire department is demoralized and disorganized," the letter said. "There seems to be a reluctance on the part of any plan checker or inspector to make any decisions.

"Each person seems to be so afraid of his job that he will make no decisions that will in any way subject him to criticism. The overall leadership seems to have broken down and the normal delegation of authority has degenerated into a one man show with every minor decision coming from the top."

Supervisor Henry A. Boney said the situation should be investigated as soon as possible. He said the Sangster and Hamann case might not be an isolated one.

Hamann said his company cannot pinpoint the visits of inspector closer than morning or afternoon. He said if they are not there the inspector will always turn them down but "if we are there the inspectors always arrive with an attitude of superiority and haste and will at the slightest provocation find something that will justify a turn down according to the book."

Tuesday, at a special board meeting, enough assembled builders and contractors were on hand to give the building inspection department a testimonial of praise.

Dept. Director J. S. Waldrep told the Board that the department does have a weakness in not having supervising engineers to aid field inspectors.

There have been other complaints but this is the first that was made formally.

No Unies, No Action!

Monte Vista High School's band has been practicing since late August with one thing in mind: the Autumn Band Review.

The band competition is held each year to select San Diego City and County's representative in the Rose Parade New Year's Day. Last year Mount Miguel won and marched in the famed parade in front of a national tee vee audience.

The Monte Vistans will not be entered in the Autumn Band Review this year; they are without uniforms.

"Our new uniforms have been ordered, but haven't come in. The manufacturer said they might be here for the Review, but they didn't show," band leader Monte Snyder said.

"We hope to have the uniforms for our homecoming show Nov. 4," he added.

Snyder said he felt his band had a pretty good chance this year to win the Review and march in the Rose Parade.

"We're real disappointed. I felt we had a good shot at it," Snyder said.

The elimination of Monte Vista from the Autumn Band Review set for this Saturday night in San Diego, leaves only Lemon Grove Junior High School band in the competition. Mount Miguel is not eligible since it won last year.

The Marching Matadors will be entered in the accompanying Parade of Champions Saturday afternoon in downtown San Diego and will be the honor band at the Review in Aztec Bowl.

League of Women Voters Asks Support For Proposition 1-A

The League of Women Voters of California has launched its latest concerted effort in its eight-year campaign for a revised, concise and modern state constitution.

Leagues throughout California will be joining with other interested individuals and organizations to provide informational materials, and speakers in support of the comprehensive measure which will appear on the November ballot, Proposition 1-A.

In making the announcement, Mrs. J. J. Lenihan, president of the LWV of Grossmont-Cajon Valley, recalled the league's in-depth study of the lengthy document as well as a two-year examination of State Legislative procedures.

She noted that the League findings resulted in efforts which saw the appointment of a statewide constitutional revision commission and a long legislative path this spring for the commission's findings. The latest appraisal by League members last spring provided the impetus for this fall's support.

The LWV of Grossmont-

Cajon Valley plans to provide a speakers bureau service for desiring further information support of this measure, in should contact Mrs. Carlton addition to its usual present-Hurst, speakers bureau chairman at 444-5838.

Storm Leaves .87 Inches

Lightning Causes 3-Hour Blackout

Lemon Grove was the recipient of .87 inches of rain as the result of Monday's storm which hit the entire County, causing minor flooding and widespread lightning discharges.

The rain brought Lemon Grove's total for the year to .95 inches. Last year at the time, Lemon Grove had received .45 inches.

The storm was marked by power failures throughout the County. The northwest section of Lemon Grove was without power for three hours when a "guy" wire was struck by lightning, causing it to drop into two 4,000-volt circuit wires, at North and Imperial.

The Lemon Grove Fire Department, with the aid of the Sheriff's Department, blocked off traffic to protect motorists from coming in contact with the "hot" wire.

The San Diego Gas and Electric Co., which called the electrical storm the worst in County history, restored service to most areas of the blacked-out portion by 12 noon. The wire was restrung by 1:30 p.m.

County-wide, the lightning knocked down numerous wires, shattered utility poles, burned out completely more than 150 transformers and damaged 700 others, and blew fuses throughout the system.

The Gas and Electric Co. switchboard operators handled more than 8,000 customer calls.

Indicative of the extent of the trouble was the company's morning outage report. Normally it runs from "nothing to report" to two or three scattered outages. Monday it ran to approximately 18 feet of single-spaced teletype paper.

DANGER — The Lemon Grove fireman, shown here heading a drenched dog away, may look like an angry despot, but actually he is protecting the animal's life as dangling near them is a live power line holding 2,400 volts, enough to fry both man and beast.

The DIMMER VIEW

Ode to the Great Society

Nothing is quite so biting satirical as poetry — if poetry is the word for what we are going to report here.

Rhyming has long been used in the political field because poetry allows writers to take license with the language. This broadens the scope of what they can say. They blame it on rhyme and metre.

It is in this light that we thank a San Diego municipal judge for passing this touch of political philosophy on to us. He claims it came from his brother who is an inhabitant of the deep South.

Want a steady job, you say?
Not for twice your lousy pay.
I work for C.D. Cee and L.B. Jay
They run a world-wide giveaway.

They took a poll and all is well
It gives me fine protection
No dreary work to learn a trade
If we win the next election.

Why get up in the dawning?
I lay in bed till late
Early in the morning
Ain't no time to demonstrate.

Sometimes I lay on sidewalks
Or stand around some doors
Or start a raging fire or two
Or sprawl on classroom floors

I bug them with what I preach
They drag me off to jail
I kick and squirm and shout "free speech"
And fight the judge's bail.

I tell how mean the cops are,
To L.B. and C.D. Cee
They go on television
About police brutality.

"Let him out. Appoint a board"
"Give him a Caddy, not a Ford"
"Turn him loose, let him be"
He's one of our Great Society.

Leave him alone, they say
Why create all this fuss
We got this fellow registered
And he's gonna vote for us.

THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read I Thessalonians 5:16-24

Be always joyful; pray continually. I Thessalonians 5:16-17, NEB)

As persons who have received the gifts of God's immeasurable grace and deep love, we Christians are naturally joyful at heart. We look to God to thank Him and praise Him at all times. Our sins are forgiven, and the dark clouds over our lives are cleared. We are reconciled to God and are called His children.

Our prayers need not be confined to a certain place—a quiet room or an office, school, factory, or shop. We can pray while walking or riding, traveling in an airplane or on a ship. We keep in intimate contact with the heavenly Father, no matter whether words are uttered or not.

Getting out of bed in the mornings, we pause to offer to God our thanks and praise. While working, we communicate with Him. After a day's work, be it one of success or failure, we can be thankful; for His will is good. So whatever happens, we sing praise to Him.

Prayer: Our Father, Thou art all glory, all holy, all goodness, and all beauty. We thank Thee for Thy Son by whose sacrifice of Himself our sins are cleansed. Help us that we may have thankful hearts to offer Thee our gratitude; through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

Thought for the day: Do I have a thankful spirit—like the Master's?

MORROW

March of Dimes Chairman Named

Councilman Floyd Morrow has been named San Diego campaign chairman of the March of Dimes.

Announcement of Morrow's appointment as leader of the January drive was made by National Foundation chapter chairman Aaron Reese.

In accepting the chairmanship Morrow, San Diego City Councilman of the Fifth District, said he would strive to reach a contribution goal of $152,000 for the 1967 drive against birth defects. He succeeds Tom Prendergast who served during the successful campaigns in 1965 and 1966.

Morrow, a member of the Texas and California bar associations, stressed the need for more research and an increased network of treatment centers.

"Here in San Diego County approximately one of every 16 babies born will have a significant defect," Morrow said. "Shocking as these facts are, they dramatically indicate that birth defects are today's greatestcrippler of children."

"The National Foundation has marshalled its forces against this killer and crippler. Its programs include research to find causes and preventives, plus birth defect centers for care of the afflicted."

Morrow pointed out that the complete success of the salk and Sabin vaccines has virtually eliminated polio as a major health concern. "This can be attributed to the March of Dimes campaigns," he said.

"Today, the March of Dimes has centered its full attention and resources on the problem of birth defects, the nation's second greatest destroyer of life," he added. "The task is tremendous, but with the determination that eliminated polio the results can be the same."

Lesson-Sermon Is Atonement

Atonement as the day-by-day effort to yield one's life to obedience to the laws of God is the theme of this week's Lesson-Sermon titled "Doctrine of Atonement" to be read in all Christian Science branch churches this Sunday.

Jesus' words, "If ye love me, keep my commandments," from the fourteenth chapter of John, are related to this explanation from the denominational textbook: "The Christ was the Spirit which Jesus implied in his own statements: 'I am the way, the truth, and the life'; 'I and my Father are one.' This Christ, or divinity of the man Jesus, was his divine nature, the godliness which animated him" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy).

The Lesson-Sermon consists of citations from the Bible and from the denominational textbook.

The Methodist Women's Society (WCS) of Foothills Methodist Church is completing plans for its regular meeting, set for Oct. 20 at 11 a.m. in the church. The program will be "Creative Hands," a holiday craft demonstration.

Supps Balk On Cost

'Implied Consent' Tests To Cost County $15 Each

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The County Board of Supervisors Tuesday again balked at paying the cost of chemical tests of the blood, urine or breath of persons arrested by the California Highway Patrol as suspected drunk drivers.

It was not made clear by Supervising Inspector D. T. Donaldson what the cost would be to the patrol because many of the tests now conducted are now paid for by the county through the district attorney's office as a prosecution cost.

Donaldson said the state attorney general has ruled that even the tests that are not used for prosecution are a county expense.

District Attorney Don Keller said he could not find authority for his office to pay for non-prosecution tests. Each test costs about $15. In 1965, the patrol made 516 arrests for drunken driving.

Deddeh Assails Proposition 16

by Norm Hutsell

Wadie Deddeh, Democratic candidate for the 77th Assembly District, has what he calls a "positive program" for the solving of the pornography problem in California.

Deddeh, speaking before a crowd of over 70 persons at a dinner honoring him last Saturday night in La Mesa's Bronze Room, said, "The Donovan Bill will protect minors from easy access to indecent and pornographic literature."

"It is a bill that has an excellent chance of passing. If it is too strong, it could be amended by the state legislature. If it is too weak, it could be strengthened by the legislature. Improvements can be made," Deddeh stated.

Deddeh said he was opposed to Proposition 16, the "obscenity amendment" on the November ballot.

"Proposition 16 makes it possible for any policeman to seize any types of books, magazines, newspapers, etc., without even a search warrant. It makes it possible for any citizen to sue a district attorney for not prosecuting what the citizen considers to be pornography or indecent literature."

"It makes it impossible for a judge to dismiss any case prior to or during a trial of an alleged obscene literature case. This is a complete departure from our constitutional system of separation of powers."

Unconstitutional
"A constitutional amendment freezes the constitution and it can be amended only by constitutional amendment. In the opinion of many attorneys, such as the district attorney of Los Angeles County and city attorney of San Diego, this proposition is certain to be declared to be unconstitutional."

"This worries me, because when it is declared unconstitutional, we will have no laws or ordinances on the books to protect our children. And therefore, I am concerned about the moral conduct of our children and the type of pornography which is in circulation. "I have nothing but the greatest respect for the good intentions and motives of those who are behind this proposition. But I consider my alternative a more realistic and workable piece of legislation."

Right to Work

Other Deddeh remarks: "The eyes of the country are upon California. If the forces of conservatism are unleashed, a right-to-work law may be passed within two years."

"It would like to state publicly that we must work hard, as hard as we can, to make sure the governor is reelected. We have an educational system that is the envy of the world. It is a tribute to the Brown administration."

"I want to represent the 77th Assembly District, both those who vote for me and those who vote against me. I will speak for both of them. I am beholden to no one. I belong to 200,000 free American citizens."

Vener Slaps Van Deerlin On Vote Stand

Sam Vener, Republican candidate for Congress in the 37th District, Saturday night leveled a barrage of criticism at his opponent, Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, for his stand on consumer credit control, foreign aid, the spread of Communism and Reticence.

Vener, speaking before a gathering of 200 persons during a reception in the Cuyamaca Club, said facts in the Congressional Record mandate Van Deerlin's defeat in the November elections. The reception was sponsored by the San Diego Farmers and San Diego Lumbermen.

Vener appealed for voter support, saying his opponent has failed to provide adequate representation.

"Look at the Peruvian crisis that confronts San Diego today," Vener added. "Peruvian authorities have seized tuna boats carrying San Diego crews on a vague charge they were operating in Peruvian waters without a license. In one instance, there was even a threatened bombing of San Diego tuna boats."

"Lionel Van Deerlin has not taken a strong stand in this crisis. Where is he? Where is our representation in this international controversy?"

Learn Spanish The Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

Many English speaking people are hesitant about visiting a Spanish speaking country. They assume that most lines of communication will not be available to them due to their lack of familiarity with Spanish. As a consequence, they feel that they will not be able to understand or be understood. To assist those who wish to increase their understanding of Spanish, beginning with this article, the cultural, geographical, economic, and linguistic aspects of visiting our nearest Spanish speaking country, Mexico, will be covered.

United States citizens must fulfill two basic requirements for making a visit to the interior of Mexico. They must have a "Tarjeta de turista" (tourist card). They must also have an updated Certificate of Vaccination.

The "Tarjeta de turista" may be obtained from Senor Rogelio Gudino, San Diego representative for the Mexican Tourism Delegation, located in the Home Tower Building in downtown San Diego. Senor Gudino greets all of his guests with "Mucho gusto" (much pleasure, or pleased to meet you). The Certificate of Vaccination may be obtained from the County Public Health Office in the previous Civic Center building annex. Expression in today's lesson cover words you may see on your "Tarjeta de Turista." Read them over and then dial 276-2762 for practicing them with the Spanish recording.

Tourist Card Expressions:

Say "Buena." (boo-EH-nah) for "Good."
Say "Para un solo viaje." (PAH-rah oon SOH-loh vee-AH-heh) for "For only one trip."
Say "Por treinta dias." (pohr TREH-eh-tah DEE-ahs) for "For thirty days."
Say "Domicilio." (doh-mee-SEE-lee-oh) for "Address."
Say "Destino final." (dehs-TEE-noh fee-NOHL) for "Final destination."

Boy Scouts Conduct Annual 'Roundup'

E. C. "Chuck" Williams, San Diego County assessor, will head up the San Diego County Council, Boy Scouts of America 1966 Fall Roundup Program.

Themed to "Follow the Ruged Road—Be a Scout", the roundup is designed to provide the greatest opportunity for the largest number of boys to join Scouting in the Council's history.

Grossmont District will recruit 337 new boys into its Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer Posts through the program where each Cub Scout and Explorer will invite a friend to join.

Area Boys

The Grossmont District will have a total of 5,610 boys in the Scouting program by the end of the year. There are 16 packs, 15 troops and eight posts in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area. Close to a 1,000 area boys participate in scouting.

Williams said, "Following summer each year, Grossmont District's 173 Packs, Troops and Posts are anxious to recruit their membership up to full strength and to get their new program activities underway."

"With the start of school, thousands of new boys in San Diego County become eligible for Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting and Exploring as they have reached a new age."

Uniform Day
"To help inform new boys, 'Uniform Day' was held Oct. 3. All Scouts wore their uniforms to school, told every non-member about Scouting and invited them to join," Williams said.

The roundup program is based on the old Western tradition of "Mortgage Burning". Each Scout unit will be issued a mortgage which will be hung around the neck of the Scout leader. He will wear the mortgage until his Scouts have recruited enough new boys to pay off the mortgage.

To encourage the Scout units, several awards are slated for those Scouts and leaders who bring in new boys.

Scouts who recruit a new boy will receive a "Recruiter Strip" for his uniform.

Awards

Cubmasters, Scoutmasters and Explorer Advisors whose roundup program results in four or less boys over their 1965 membership will receive a 3-inch "Roundup Patch" for his uniform. For a five or more boy membership increase over last year, he will be given a special "Roundup Cub Mug".

Any unit that pays off their mortgage will be presented a "Honor Unit Flag Streamer". Williams said, "Many of the Scout leaders will hold a Mortgage Burning in connection with a dad and son weiner roast to mark the achievement of paying off the mortgage at the end of the Roundup on Dec. 31."

"Any boy who wishes to participate in Scouting may contact Boy Scouts of America, 298-6121."

Politics In Brief

ROBERT H. FINCH

New educational and safety laws to reduce gun accidents and at the same time protect the traditional right of responsible individuals to possess firearms was advocated by Robert H. Finch, Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor.

"Even though California has a complete set of laws and a good safety record in regard to firearms, the assassination of President Kennedy and the Charles Whitman killings in Texas have brought the public's attention to the misuse of firearms," Finch pointed out that no gun law would have prevented the Whitman killings.

"Less publicized is the overwhelming legitimate use of firearms in hunting, target shooting, gun collecting and the protection of one's home and family, crops and livestock," Finch declared.

"Laws aimed at reducing crime and accidents require careful consideration in order that the legitimate ownership and use of firearms will not be transgressed," the candidate said.

Finch made two specific proposals for changes in California law:

1. Require mandatory hunter safety instruction prior to the issuance of the first California hunting license.

2. Increase the present hunting license fee from $4 to $8, with the increase being earmarked for acquisition and development of hunting preserves on appropriate state land.

Dishonest Garages Plague California Motorists Cites State Office Of Consumer Counsel Rep.

This is a story about automobile repair in California.

It is told by letters sent to State Consumer Counsel Helen Nelson, picked from among hundreds of letters she has received on the subject.

"We trust that most auto repair garages in California are reputable and honest," said

Area Valedictorians Attend San Diego State College

Seven valedictorians are among a group of 133 freshmen accepted into San Diego State's honors-at-entrance program.

The enriched study plan gives students four years of individual counseling and access to restricted courses that move quickly from routine to advanced aspects of psychology, economics and political science.

Students must have attained high scholastic grades in the last three years of high school and achieved a high score on an American College Training Program exam. The valedictorians and their high schools include Ruth Naomi Logadon of 10433 Don Pico Rd., Spring Valley, Monte Vista; and Cynthia Elizabeth Vogt of 8125 Roy St., Lemon Grove, Mt. Miguel.

The remainder of the honors-at-entrance students include Jaek Reg Armstrong of 3355 Lakeview Dr., Spring Valley, Mt. Miguel; and Judith Bowersox of 7415 Canton Dr., Lemon Grove, Mt. Miguel; John Bruce Ferguson of 10015 Cris-

"Safety" Theme At Avondale PTA

The Avondale P.T.A. will hold its meeting October 18 in the school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. This month's theme is entitled "Safety—An Ounce of Prevention." Mr. Hank Jahns, Pacific Telephone Company Representative, will speak on "What are Your Odds?"

Mrs. Gene Edwards, P.T.A. president, will preside over the meeting while Boy Scout Troop No. 357 will post the colors.

Mrs. Nelson, "but enough have questionable competence or integrity to make automobile repair one of the consumer's most urgent problems."

Here is an example: "I took my Rambler into (name of garage) and gave instructions to repair 5 different items," wrote a Tujunga resident. He was given an estimate of $100. When he phoned the garage owner at 11 a.m. he was told that the block was warped between the fifth and sixth cylinder. "I told him not to do anything more to the car, that I'd be in at 5 p.m. to see the condition of the block," he said.

Upon arrival, he found a bill for $304.75 waiting.

The garage owner "took into his own authority to install a dozen or more things to the car," the Tujunga man related. "He demanded payment in full before he would release my car, and wouldn't guarantee the work he had done. He claimed the car had been neglected, and installed new parts because the car needed them. Example—he installed new spark plugs for $6.60.

"I had all new spark plugs installed 3 months prior by another garage," the car owner wrote.

"I took my car back to

(the) garage several times because it was heating up and was in worse running condition than it was before I took it in."

The garage replaced a radiator cap and told the Tujunga motorist that his car was supposed to run at a high temperature.

Later, this man incurred another $114 repair bill for a cracked block, which he was told resulted from running the car at the high temperature.

Furthermore, he had a mechanic check the motor and found that he had been charged for valve grinding "among other things" that had not actually been done by the first garage.

Ballooning Estimate

A Sacramento man took his 1956 truck to a garage that is advertised on television. His first repair estimate was for $144.50.

"They called me the next day and said that it would cost $265.65 for a rebuilt motor," he wrote, "because mine was too bad to fix. I told them to go ahead . . ."

He phoned back after a week. "They then told me it would cost $470.25 and gave me a long story why." The truck owner told them to hold up and checked several other garages. He learned that he could get the same job done cheaper elsewhere, but when he tried to get the truck back,

"they told me it would cost me $36 for them to put it back together again."

A North Hollywood resident wrote an account of his experiences with a "brake center" in the Los Angeles area. For $78.30, he was given a "life-time guarantee brake job, including wheel cylinders and bearings and seals," he wrote. "Since this time I have had nothing but trouble."

First he took the car back because the brakes squeaked. Less than a month after job, his master cylinder started leaking. Neither the brake shop, nor branches of the same company he contacted had parts, so he had his car dealer make the repair.

But he says: "After this the brakes were as before—no good."

Two months after the brake repairs, he took his car back to the same shop and was told his brake drums were "over tolerance." "After this work was done," he relates, "is when the trouble really began. The brake pedal wouldn't return, it had to be pulled up with your foot. The brakes were still squeaking and grinding and making noises."

He went to another shop of the brake company. "They inspected the brakes and said there was nothing wrong—except that I needed a power unit." He had the unit installed.

"Afraid To Drive"

Five months after the initial brake work was done, "the brakes were so bad I was afraid to drive the car any longer." He took it to still another shop of the same brake repair company. "They found that there wasn't any lining left on one set of brake shoes and very little left on another." He left the car over the weekend for the shop to make repairs under the guarantee.

"When my wife went to get the car, they couldn't get the car started and the battery was dead," he wrote. "When I got there I found the battery dead and ruined with one of the posts broken off, both horns ruined and the horn relay ruined, and the car burglar alarm ruined—all completely burned up."

After making these repairs to his car, he tallied his costs for brake and other repairs: $273.99 for brake relines, power unit, battery, car rental, burglar alarm and two horns. This doesn't include the cost of a master cylinder repair.

He ended his letter by saying that still the "brakes aren't any good."

What can be done to correct such problems?

Mrs. Nelson said: "Complain, notify your district attorney, consult a private attorney, sue, bring the garage to a small claims court." She encourages consumers to let her office know of auto repair complaints so that she may present such evidence to the State Legislature.

"I hope to see a law passed next year to require stricter adherence to good business principles of advance estimates and itemized charges by garage owners," she said. "The law would provide for a bureau, such as the TV repair bureau, to spot check establishments suspected of fraud or gross incompetence."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Jehovah's witnesses of the South San Diego County, extend their thanks to you and your staff for the fine cooperation shown in informing our readers of our convention program at Chula Vista this past weekend.

Dear Editor:

National Newspaper Week, Oct. 9-15, is a time to remind ourselves that, truly, "newspapers make a big difference in people's lives."

In the health field alone, newspapers have wielded and are wielding tremendous force for good. Sixty years ago a newspaper saved this country's first Christmas Seal Campaign from disaster and made it a financial success.

Newspapers continue to support the Christmas Seal Campaign. And they support the work of every other health agency of proven worth.

Yes, "newspapers make a big difference in people's lives." This is a good time to think of the many good things your newspaper helped bring about in the past year.

Sincerely yours,
Robert Rosen, M.D.

Dear Editor:

Recently I had the occasion of making a tour of the Inland Empire. I would like to compliment the fine citizens of this community for the patriotism and love of country shown by the displaying of the American Flag. Never before have I seen so many flags displayed in a community of this size.

Most flags were displayed properly and in a respectful manner however, I did witness several flags that were displayed in bad taste or were soiled and tattered.

For those citizens who are interested in knowing the history of our flag; where, when, and how to display it, and how to respect it, I have an excellent booklet which can be obtained, free of charge, by stopping by my office at 354 N. Magnolia Ave., El Cajon, California or calling 444-5794.

Dear Editor:

The First District San Diego County, Department of California, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States is holding the 20th Annual Voice of Democracy contest for all 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students in San Diego County High Schools. "Democracy: What It Means To Me" is the theme of the National Broadcast Script-writing Contest.

Thirteen Thousand-five hundred dollars in scholarships will be given to the first five national winners at the V.F.W. National Finals, February 7, 1967, Kansas City, Missouri. The top national winner will receive a five thousand dollar scholarship to any college he or she chooses; plus four other scholarships for second, third, fourth, and fifth place winners of $3,500; $2,500; $1,500; and $1,000 respectively. The contest will commence at the start of the fall semester and end December 2, 1966.

In sponsoring this contest the Veterans of Foreign Wars believes that each individual has a personal interest in our American Citizenship and our Democracy. This year's theme "Democracy: What It Means To Me" is most timely. The United States of America is under more peril from the Cold War abroad and from apathy within than ever before in its glorious history. An active, dedicated and resourceful citizenry is mandatory in times such as these.

The very essence of active citizenship is public interest and participation. And this interest and participation loses its value unless it is based on knowledge and thought.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars is interested in stimulating young people to think deeply about our democratic system. The V.F.W. believes that it is most important for youngsters to think about citizenship in terms of their own lives.

For this reason the Voice of Democracy contest was started throughout the United States nineteen years ago. Each year the Voice of Democracy stimulates thousands and thousands of high school students to think about patriotic subjects and then to write brief scripts of them.

Each school winner will have his or her winning script put on tape, and judging will be done on the basis of content, delivery and originality.

The top winner in each of the fifty states will receive an expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C. for the Nations awards ceremonies next February, plus a side trip to Philadelphia and Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

The Voice of Democracy contest is endorsed by the United States Office of Education. The National Association of Secondary School Principals has placed the contest on its approved list of National Contests and activities for the school year 1966-67.

Dear Editor:

It has come to the attention of the Marine Corps Recruiting Service in El Cajon that some qualified young men who have had their notice for induction into the armed forces are unaware that they can still volunteer for the service of their choice. Selective Service is obligated to release registrants ordered to report for induction for enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps for three or four years. Enlistment in the Marine Corps must be effected prior to data of scheduled induction.

Selective Service System Operations Bulletin No. 287, issued 20 Jan 1966 stated: "A communication from the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower to the Director of Selective Service contains the following recommendation: 'I would therefore recommend that you revise your Selective Service procedures to restrict cancellation of induction orders by your draft boards to individuals who have been accepted for regular enlistments.'"

Each registrant who inquires regarding enlistment, after an order to report for induction has been issued to him, will be informed that, supported by convincing evidence that a representative of any of the Regular armed forces is prepared to enlist him or before he date set for his induction, he may request the State Director of Selective Service to cancel his order and permit him to enlist."

Anyone requiring further clarification contact Master Sergeant John W. Manion or Staff Sergeant Mike Hawes of the Marine Corps Recruiting Service, 354 N. Magnolia Ave., El Cajon, or call 444-5794.

Century Club Launches Annual Membership Drive

and a players' purse of $60,000 for the 1967 San Diego PGA Open, the Century Club has launched its annual membership drive. The Club sponsors the annual golf tournament, scheduled Jan. 11-15 at Stardust Country Club.

"We're after a record membership of 500," club president Frank Alessio declared. "There's no other way we can reach the $60,000 purse we have guaranteed the PGA." Membership in the Century Club are $100 each. For their $100 members receive nearly that much in admissions to the Open, plus other benefits. Added this year to member kits are six season tickets.

The Century Club already has $33,000 toward it's $60,000 goal. The City has appropriated $20,000, the County $5,000, and early memberships total $8,000.

Alessio explained that the new two-year PGA contract for San Diego Open tournaments in '67 and '68 requires a minimum players' purse of $60,000 for each of the two events.

Because the Open will launch the 1967 PGA tournament Director Sid Lind expects the best field in the 15-year history of the San Diego Open. It's the first time San Diego has been the year's lead-off tournament.

THE WEEK IN SPORTS

MATADOR STALWART — Mike Robinson (54) is one of several two-way performers for coach Perry Miller's Mount Miguel Matador football team. Robinson, a 5-11, 190-pound senior letterman, plays both offensive center and defensive tackle. He also handles the punting chores.

MM on Rebound Against El Cap

by Ben Sele

Mount Miguel's Matadors, licking their wounds after a 34-7 loss to Helix last week, will try to regain the winning spirit this Friday night when they visit El Capitan's Vaqueros at Valley Stadium.

Kickoff for the Grossmont League game is 8 p.m. It will be the second league game of the season for both clubs.

The Matadors, after whipping Sweetwater 50-20 in their non-league opener, couldn't stop a Helix offense that accounted for over 330 yards.

Miguel took the opening kickoff and marched 79 yards to the Helix 10, but fumbled with the Highlanders recovering on their own 15.

Bart Williamson, Helix junior, sprinted 85 yards on the first Highlander play from scrimmage and the Scots were in front, 7-0.

Seven downs later, Miguel was forced to give up the ball and Helix scored again on a 55-yard scamper by halfback Mark Brown.

A drive of 63 yards later in the second period gave Helix a 21-0 lead and the Scots were home free.

Miguel scored just before the gun ended the first half. Quarterback Jerry Lowery pitched a 10-yard TD to wingback Frank Gilbert. Lowery hit Bruce Johnson with a pass for the extra point.

Helix put the frosting on the cake in the second half with 13 points. Miguel was blanked in the last 24 minutes.

El Capitan also lost last week, dropping a 33-18 decision to Santana. The Vaqueros are 0-2 on the year.

The undefeated San Diego State Aztecs face their toughest assignment of the season this week when they risk their four-game winning streak against San Jose Saturday night at San Jose.

The 8 p.m. contest will be broadcast on KOGO-Radio (600 on the dial) with Al Coussepe at mikeside.

For the second consecutive week, coach Don Coryell's gridders must oppose one of the nation's top passers. Last week when they topped Cal State of Long Beach, 21-18, they saw Jack Reilly of the 49ers hurl 33 aeriels.

This week they must stop Danny Holman, who led San Jose to an upset win over California last Saturday, 24-0. Holman, the nation's leading major college passer, hit on 22 of 37 passes.

Don Horn, tops in the CCAA and in college division ranks, has thrown 120 passes for the Aztecs with 63 completions good for 1070 yards and 10 touchdowns.

San Jose State opened the season by blanking Mexico Poly, 45-0, and continued winning ways against Weber State, 38-34; Cal Poly (SLO), 14-13, and Cal State at Long Beach.

The Aztecs and San Jose have met 17 times with the Spartans holding a 14-2-1 advantage in the series. The last time the two teams met in 1964 San Jose rallied in the last quarter to win, 20-15. The two Aztec victories were back-to-back in 1936 and 1937.

This will be the final away game of the season for the Aztecs who return home to meet Fresno State Oct. 29 in the first of five contests scheduled for San Diego that close the regular season.

Grossmont College Harriers Score Win

Grossmont Junior College's cross country team, fresh from an impressive showing against arch-rival Mesa College, will try to make it two wins in a row Friday in a Pacific Southwest Conference race at Southwestern College.

The Griffins smashed Mesa's Olympians, always a threat to the El Cajon crew, 22-33, as former Mount Miguel High star Vern Wilkinson paced all runners with a time of 20:19.2.

Wilkinson led a charge of Griffin runners that included a third place finish by Erich Russell, fourth by Bill Lawson and sixth by Charles Winsor. Tom Jones was eighth for the Griffins.

The defending state champion Griffins are undefeated for the year. They captured the Long Beach Invitational earlier this season.

College Brass Quartet To Perform At GJC

The second concert in the fall series of morning chamber concerts and recitals, presented by Grossmont College's Music Department, will be devoted to compositions for both woodwind and brass instruments.

The concert, scheduled for 11 a.m. Friday, in the Fine Arts Lecture Hall, will introduce the College Brass Quartet. The quartet, with Gerald Jackson, San Diego, and Michael Fay, Encanto, playing trumpets; Leslie Smith, El Cajon, trombone; and Kenneth Howard, El Cajon, tuba, will perform the Mozart Fugue K. 401 and three Bach Chorales.

Three other groups featured in the first concert of the series will also be heard. The woodwind trio will play two Bach Sinfonias and a trio by Maurice Frank. The woodwind quintet will play Pastoral by Vincent Persichetti, and the clarinet choir will perform pieces by Hesse, Zipoli, and Corelli.

There is no admission charge and the public is invited to attend these morning concerts and recitals on the college's Fletcher Hills campus.

Griffs Win First Game

Grossmont College won its first game of the grid season and at the same time, opened the Pacific Southwest Conference on a winning note by turning back Mira Costa, 14-8, Saturday night.

The Griffins, losers of their first two contests, both non-conference outings, scored twice in the third period to wrap up the win.

Ralph Lavage took in a 32-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Wash Walker and Don Evans banged in from five yards out. Jim Coddington received a two-point PAT from Walker.

Mira Costa also scored its points in the third period.

Statistically, Grossmont was far in front, out-distancing the Spartans, 312-193. Grossmont, aided by Rick Blanchard's 150 yards, gained 243 on the ground.

This Saturday night the Griffins meet Southwestern's Apaches at Southwestern. The Apaches whipped Imperial Valley College, 36-6, in their PSC opener.

Jack Clegg Points Toward Grand Prix

The blue ribbon speed classic of the season, the 55-lap Grand Prix, will be the offering hosting the modified sportsman cars this Saturday night at Cajon Speedway.

The card, 20th of the year for the speedy sprint cars, will be a double-point affair and will end the point season. Only the 2,500 open competition race Oct. 29 is left for the modifieds.

Jack Clegg of Santee won last week's 30-lap main event to clinch the 1966 point championship. He will be one of the favorites for the extended lap affair Saturday night.

Others expected to be in contention include the track's 50-lap record holder, Lee Robinson of Spring Valley. Robinson is tenth on the point standings list; Bakerfield's Frank Secrist, five-time main event winner; Don Hamilton of El Cajon, Jim Wood of Ramona and five-time main event victor Don Edmunds of Anaheim.

Also on the program will be a 25-lap semi-main, four heat races and a trophy dash. Qualifying starts at 6:30 p.m.

New Mark For Olsen

Don Olsen, Monte Vista high senior, set a new cross country course record at Granite Hills High last Friday in the Monarch's 18-43 victory.

Olsen, who the previous week established a new mark at Grossmont High, timed 9:39.4 to snap the old record of 9:46. Olsen is a returning all-CIF selection.

Olsen was followed to the tape by teammate Dave Matheny. Jerry Edelbrock of Granite Hills was third followed by Monarch Dave Carter, Danny Ungricht and Brent Wilson.

Mark Clark, Rod Stephens and Danny Matheny were 8-9-10 for Monte Vista.

The Jayvee and freshman meets were also won by the Monarchs. John Chapman

Close, But Not Close Enough

Monte Vista High's Monarchs have never won a Grossmont League football game, but they're getting close.

The Monte Vistans, who have been shackled in the past by a tiny enrollment in comparison to other district schools, have grown a bit this year in their enrollment (1,400). They've also grown on the football field.

Coach Max McCartney's athletes showed that last Friday night by holding powerful Grossmont High to a 14-6 victory at Helix Stadium.

The Foothillers were overwhelming favorites, having dumped Kearny's Komets the week before, 26-0, and beaten Helix, 6-0, in the District Carnival.

Close Loss
All Monte Vista had to show was a close loss to Mission Bay, a team that has won three games this year after failing to hit the winning ledger last season.

Grossmont scored in the first period to take a 7-0 lead and that score stood until the Hillers crossed the Monarch goal line in the third quarter for a 14-0 lead.

Monte Vista came back to score with two minutes left in the same period. QB Chuck Downing capped a 60-yard drive by tossing a seven yard pass to senior halfback Allen Brodwolf for the score. The conversion kick was low.

Threat Dies
The Monarchs threatened again in the fourth period, driving to the Grossmont nine-yard line. However, the Hiller defense stiffened and erased the Monte Vista threat.

This week, the Monarchs show unbeaten Granite Hills at Mount Miguel Stadium.

The Eagles have eased past their first two opponents (Castle Park, 46-12, and El Cajon, 40-7) and will be the conceded favorite.

Westgate Park Is Site For Professional Rodeo

The professional sports scene in San Diego takes on a western look this month as professional rodeo returns Oct. 22-23 to Westgate Park.

A guaranteed prize money minimum of $5,000 will draw top-name cowboy pros, all of whom will be headed for the Cow Palace Rodeo which begins four days after the San Diego dates. The San Francisco event winds up the regular rodeo season, which began on New Year's Day.

Already pledged to compete at San Diego are two of the six current world champion cowboys. Shawn Davis, the 24-year old saddle bronc riding king from Whitehall, Mont., and last year's top steer wrestler Harley May, Oakdale, Calif., are both already entered. May is 40, rodeo's ageless wonder. He won previous world titles in 1952 and in 1956.

Politics In Brief

RICHARD NEVINS

"Senior Citizens must have a secure roof over their heads. In this inflationary period, either property tax relief or rent assistance for the Elderly Citizen with a small fixed income is an absolute necessity," said Richard Nevins, Southern California's Member of the State Board of Equalization.

Nevins, seeking his third term on the Board has advocated the passage of this type of legislation since 1959. Speaking at the "Campaign Carnival on the Pomona Mall" he outlined areas in this issue.

The Wisconsin program already in operation provides for a refund of property tax or rental payments based on the level of Senior Citizen income. "I favor this type of program and intend to again advocate it to the 1967 legislature."

This kind of legislation places the burden of the program at the state level. It, therefore, cannot erode the local property tax base. It also does not create a tax lien against property. Furthermore, it does not require a cumbersome constitutional amendment.

"It is time," Nevins concluded, "the State of California recognized its place in the nation is the result of the efforts of today's Senior Citizens. Their security must be established with the aid of property tax assistance for the days ahead."

JESSE UNRUH

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh has urged a "yes" vote on Proposition 1-A in a speech to students at California State College at Los Angeles.

Unruh was a participant in the week-long California Political Forum sponsored by the college's student body.

"The California Legislature has been engaged for the last few years in a program of self-improvement," Unruh said. "We have increased our staff assistance and streamlined our internal procedures, but there is a limit to this process of legislative reform. That limit is the present State Constitution."

"Passage of Proposition 1-A will free us from restrictions which were stumbling blocks one hundred years ago when they were established and today effectively prevent a meaningful system of checks and balances in our State Government."

It involves major surface, submarine and air units of the Seventh Fleet, as well as Royal Navy ships, in offensive tactics against an "aggressor" force of three U. S. submarines, one nuclear powered.

Seventh Fleet units operate throughout the Western Pacific from the Arctic to the Antarctic, in a 30 million square mile area. One and one-half billion people, more than half the world's population, live on the Asian land mass adjacent to these waters.

He was awarded the promotion two months earlier than is customary because of his accuracy in firing the M-14 rifle, high score on the physical combat proficiency test and his military bearing and leadership abilities.

The early promotion program is an Army policy providing incentive for outstanding trainees.

During the training period, he received more than 200 hours of instruction in guerrilla warfare, the use of infantry weapons, combat patrols, and squad tactics.

His next assignment is four weeks of basic specialist training to prepare him for a specific job in the Marine Corps. Marines to be assigned to infantry units will be taught sub-specialties such as the technical operation of the machine gun, grenade launcher, or mortar. Those entering highly skilled occupational fields will receive advanced training at resident technical schools.

SEAMAN GLENN

The mine exercise, the third conducted this year, involves 29 ships ranging in size from attack aircraft carrier to minesweeper, commenced 13 September.

"Eager Angler" is designed to ready ships for combat roles in the Western Pacific. Vice Admiral Bernard F. Roeder, USN, Commander First Fleet, is in overall command.

Among the phases of naval warfare to be stressed are air and anti-air operations including aerial strikes with live ordnance in the bombing ranges of the Chocolate Mountains and San Clemente Island; close air support and aerial reconnaissance.

Politics In Brief

PROPOSITION ONE

The League of California Cities has called for continued improvement in public service through passage of Proposition No. 1 at the November general election.

League President Erwin Sklar said the measure would help improve public service through creation of a more modern employee retirement system that would help retain high caliber employees.

Proposition No. 1 would permit selective investment of public employee retirement funds in common stocks on a restricted basis.

SPENCER WILLIAMS

Spencer Williams, Republican candidate for State Attorney General, today urged that the constitutionality of all propositions be pre-tested before being placed on the ballot.

"Such a procedure," Williams said, "would eliminate needless waste of money and emotions on propositions which later fail to meet the 'constitutional requirement'."

Two recent propositions with appeals pending are 14 which would repeal the Rumford Act and 15 which bans Pay TV. Both won voter approval by wide margins.

To avoid similar setbacks, Williams suggests either proponents or opponents be allowed by law to petition the State Supreme Court for a decision on tentative propositions.

BETTS HONORED

A coveted honorary membership in Alpha Kappa Psi, the nation's oldest professional business fraternity, has been presented to California Treasurer Bert A. Betts, a former Lemon Grove resident.

ENDORSEMENT

The Mexican-American Civil Council, a state-wide organization, has endorsed Ronald Reagan for Governor, it was announced today.

Garage Owners Meet

Independent Garage Owners of California, unit No. 24, will hold its monthly dinner meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. at El Morocco Restaurant in Lemon Grove.

Andy Mann is president.

ENLISTMENT

Richard L. Norris has enlisted in the United States Army, according to Sergeant Dan J. O'Keefe, station commander of the Army Recruiting Station at 350 N. Magnolia, El Cajon.

BERT BETTS

Passage of Proposition 2, the ballot measure which would provide $230 million in bond funds for construction on University of California and State College campuses, was urged today by State Treasurer Bert A. Betts.

"The expansion of California's college-age population means that a coincident expansion of our college and university facilities must be undertaken—if we are to provide education for every student who is qualified."

Betts pointed out that he "backs this bond issue 100 percent even though he is pleased that, at the time this measure was placed on the ballot, the Governor and the Legislature took steps to gradually shift higher education financing to a pay-as-you-go basis through earmarking of Tidelands Oil revenues."

The latest move "is important," he said, "since California's bond sales have been at levels slightly above that at which we can continue to obtain the most favorable interest rates."

Betts urged California voters to "vote 'yes' for education by voting 'yes' on Proposition 2."

Highway Taxes

Highway users taxes totaling $48,055,950 were apportioned among the State, counties and cities during September, State Controller Alan Cranston reported today. Cranston said $9,910,806 went directly to the counties. San Diego county's share was $514,727.99.

Personal Income

Californians' personal income rate rose eight percent in April, May and June, and so did taxable sales—to a record $8½ billion, a State revenue official has disclosed.
